Pardon our Dust

Dust is annoying. And it never stays away. It doesn't matter if you use Pledge or Swiffer, you get rid of the dust and it settles again seemingly minutes later. As a kid we learned that dust is dead skin, and that is partly true, though dust comes from many places. And dust does come, and keeps coming back! Think about those two aspects of dust Biblically, and you may have a new perspective on the Christian faith.

First, dust comes from death – dead skin and dead insect parts are part of dust, according to the Canadian Centre for Architecture's Canadian Dust Study (look it up on your favorite search engine). When we began Lent on Ash Wednesday we heard again the words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return." This curse first heard in Adam's punishment after falling into sin (Genesis 3) is a reminder to us of our own mortality.

Second, dust keeps coming back. There's a great Latin phrase in vivo mortem. Literally, "in the living (is) death." In this Easter season we readily combine that concept with Christ. The promise of Isaiah 25:8 "He will swallow up death forever" is proclaimed as fulfilled 1 Corinthians 15:54-55 "Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" Though we experience death in this life, Christ, who is the way, the truth, and the life (John 14) has swallowed up and destroyed death forever!

If you see ads for Pledge or Swiffer, the images they show of a freshly dusted table might be described as heavenly. Yet the real heavenly experience is not now – it is the promise of life that cannot die again, life eternal, with Christ in his Father's house. So for now – when you see dust think Easter, think resurrection, and be reminded that though we return to dust we have life promised in the death and resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Alleluia, Christ is Risen.
He is risen indeed, Alleluia!

A CAPITAL CAMPAIGN FOR PILGRIM LUTHERAN

UPDATE

THANK YOU

There are many, many people to thank for all the progress and how this capital campaign has gone. Seeing the work and the selfless giving of time, talents, and treasures by many in this process has reinforced the reality that God gives to his church various gifts, and when those gifts come together the results are honestly nothing short of miraculous.

So, thank you to the capital campaign team who have guided this process from the beginning. I'll be honest – the thought of a capital campaign intimidated me a bit because I've never been part of one before. Seeing the way that "many hands make light work" in this instance was a blessing to me, and for Pilgrim.

Thank you to everyone who attended or contributed to the success of the campaign events, whether it was being a host, making a phone call, bringing an egg bake, or any other of numerous "hidden" activities, you helped make the success possible. Thank you to those who prayed for the campaign and all that would happen in it. As we learn to depend on the Lord, we learn again to see his provision, both in terms of providing for the campaign, and providing through the campaign.

Thank you to those who have donated or pledged donations. The many lives which will be impacted for generations because of your selfless gifts are more than we can count. Though it is lacking in our society today, self-sacrificial living is precisely what Jesus calls his disciples to. So, to summarize it all: thank you for living out your faith. I am quite thankful for all of you at and around Pilgrim who do so, and let us enjoy the blessings the Lord provides as we faithfully follow him.

- Pastor Hanson

APRIL CAPITAL CAMPAIGN PRAYER MINISTRY

by Vicar John E. Schultz

We want to give thanks and praise to our Lord in prayer for this building process. In Ezra 3:12 it is written, "With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD: "He is good; His love toward Israel endures forever." And all the people gave a great shout of praise to the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid."

April's Campaign Prayer

Lord God heavenly Father, when we come into Your presence in prayer, we cannot help but rejoice and praise You with shouts of thanksgiving for Your presence with us through this process of striding forward to build additional classrooms for Your church and school. You are a God who is in the details. Your Holy Spirit has called us by your Gospel. Your Son Jesus Christ has paved the way for our salvation with His suffering, death, and resurrection. You have provided us with the leaders, the plans, and with the devotedness to accomplish Your purpose. Like Your chosen people, we give You praise and thanksgiving as we know You will endure forever.

You Lord have paved the way for us to lay the foundation for an addition to Preach, Teach, and Reach more people with Your loving Gospel. We can truly say thank you for leading us to Save the Lost and Strengthen the Saved at Pilgrim. We continue to pray for Your encouragement through the Holy Spirit for our members to share from the many blessings You have bestowed on them. We have seen great evidence of Your loving direction and support. We know You are a Lord whose arm is not too short to bless us. We continue to pray for Your guidance in the name of Your precious Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

North Wisconsin District (NWD) Disaster Response Sunday is April 28

Natural disasters are nothing new. Whether we are simply more aware or if there really are more disasters than ever before, they have become almost routine. Since LCMS Disaster Response started with LERT (Lutheran Emergency Response Training) in 2005 after Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans, it seems we have experienced an unprecedented number of storms. From tragic hurricanes impacting Houston to Atlantic City, hundreds of tornados from Tuscaloosa to our very own Merrill, NWD congregations have been represented by hundreds of volunteers called to serve.

Many of our members and dozens of our congregations willingly become Jesus' hands and feet to those who need the loving presence of our Lord during tragic events. By God's grace, we partner with our fellow LCMS brothers and sisters from around the country to impact lives with the love of Jesus, while helping to pick up the pieces after such devastation.

April 28th is NWD Disaster Response Sunday. Building awareness of this critical ministry is our priority. The NWD has a Disaster Response Coordinator, Pastor Andy Weden, who serves at Peace Campus Center. Pastor Andy serves as our liaison to LCMS National Disaster Response. This role provides him a deep understanding of the support and services the LCMS can provide to disaster areas and to those looking to serve. His role is to help our NWD congregations with training, networking and support, when possible.

Disaster Response Sunday also allows members of the NWD to financially support this NWD mercy ministry. When special equipment might be needed and a coordinated response is required, your gifts provide the training, support and networking needed. Your gifts labeled "NWD Disaster Response" provide a resource that is instantly available when disaster strikes.

- Pray for people suffering through disasters

- Consider your congregation's plan to serve those in need, then contact Pastor Andy (715-345-6510) to provide training, support and networking

- Donate to NWD Disaster Response. Donate online on the "GIVE NOW" tab at nwdlcms.org or mail to: NWD LCMS, 3103 Seymour Lane, Wausau, WI 54401

Hymn of the Month: The Alleluias are back in April's Hymn of the Month! "Christ Has Arisen, Alleluia" (LSB 466) tells the resurrection story with a simple melody that comes from our brothers and sisters in Christ in Tanzania. We celebrate with Christians everywhere: "Jesus is living, alleluia!"

Special Music Calendar for April:

- April 6: Living Word Choir + Band Concert, PLS Grades 5-8
- April 7: Pilgrim Choir
- April 13: PLS Grades 3-4

The following weekend, we'll be blessed with the musicians of our own NEW Lutheran High here in Green Bay, who will provide music for the 9:00 am service as part of NEWLHS Sunday.

Summer is approaching, and that means opportunities for special worship music for vocalists and instrumentalists of all types. We'd love to fill the summer schedule with the talents of Pilgrim members. Piano, flute, guitar, voice...anything goes! Give Ruth a call to reserve your spot!

What Should I Say? What CAN I say?

by Pilgrim member Maureen Seyferth

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds." (Psalm 147:3)

Before I experienced grief myself (the loss of my husband, Larry) if I was around someone who lost a loved one, I would say, "I am sorry." I always felt that wasn't enough. So I would try to come up with something else, like, "You will see him/her again in heaven." I hope the recipient would know "...it's the thought that counts".

Now going thru grief myself and attending GriefShare, I have learned there are "good" things and "bad things" that may be said. Americans as a group do not know how to handle grief. How do we know what to say? We heard it said by others, our parents said it, we saw it in a movie or we read it. If you haven't experienced grief then you may have no idea of what to say. Words are so powerful! To enlighten those who need it, I have some insight into this to help you the next time you are talking to someone mourning the loss of a loved one.

Let's start out with some classics:

- "At least they're in a better place." Although heaven is a better place, this is not helpful in that the person mourning thinks when you say this, "NO, by ME is a better place!"
- At least you had them as long as you did.
- There is a reason for everything...you didn't need grief to learn a lesson, you are learning all the time.
- Aren't you over him yet, he has been dead for awhile now....you never 'get over' losing someone. For some reason we put a time line on how long one should grieve.
- You can have another child still...oh my! This may be true, but you want the one you lost.
- She was such a good person God wanted her to be with him.
- She did what she came here to do and it was her time to go.
- Be strong...oh if only that was easy to do.

The problem is there is an implied second half of the sentence in all these familiar lines. That second half of the sentence can erase what is true now in favor of some alternative experience. That ghost-sentence tells you it's not OK to feel how you feel. If you cringe or feel angry when people say these statements to you it's because you hear the second half.

Here are some suggestions for comforting someone mourning:

- I am sorry for your loss.
- I wish I had the right words, just know I care.
- I don't know how you feel, but I am here to help in any way I can.
- You and your loved one will be in my thoughts and prayers.
- My favorite memory of your loved one is...
- I am always just a phone call away.

Things you can do:

- Give a hug instead of saying something.
- Say nothing, just be with the person.

Pilgrim offers GriefShare, a place where people can find a safe place to tell their story, to find support, and learn about different aspects about grief. Everything discussed is confidential. Call 920-965-2233 for more info.

STEPHEN MINISTERS: “PLANTING SEEDS OF HOPE”

Spring has officially arrived!

If you are a gardener, you may be working in your flower beds or determining what vegetables to plant this year. I find watching plants grow from tiny little seeds I simply place in the ground truly amazing. This growing process and the changing of the seasons are two small examples of how creative our awesome God is!

One of our goals in Stephen Ministry is to plant seeds of hope in people's lives who are going through a difficult life experience and feel alone in their struggle. We ask Christ to work through us as conduits of His compassion. Through this caring process, the person can be uplifted by sharing their burden and grow in their faith that God will help them through the difficulty.

Stephen Ministers receive comprehensive training in how to care for individuals in specific situations such as grief, divorce, job loss, serious illness or caregiving for another, family stressors, etc. As we serve in this Ministry, we experience spiritual growth ourselves. We plan to offer a new training class this fall. If you want to learn compassionate caregiving skills and grow in your walk with the Lord, please consider joining our team.

For information on the fall training class, or to request confidential care for yourself or someone you know, please speak with a Pastor or contact any Stephen Leader: Barbara Hein at 920-362-5035, Nancy Kraszewski at 920-621-6917, or Bunnie Schunck at 920-362-4794.

WHAT IS A BENQ BOARD?

Pilgrim recently purchased several BenQ Boards. These interactive displays are used to enhance learning. Rebekah Spaulding recently used one of the new boards, some of which are able to be rolled to locations around the campus, to supplement her Wednesday night confirmation lesson.

For many churches, Vacation Bible School (VBS) is a summer highlight. The event leads to lasting memories and changed hearts. It also sparks laughter. Maybe you've seen VBS humor online, such as the quote, "I'm tired, I mean like...Vacation Bible School kind of tired!" Another post reads, "You know you're obsessed with VBS when...you're excited about cardboard on the side of the road." And anyone with an earworm at week's end can relate to this meme: "My parents hid my VBS CD. It's for the best."

For hungry young learners, snacks make an especially big impression. One excited preschooler shared that she enjoyed "juice and Billy Graham crackers" at VBS. Another boy raved about the first day saying, "We heard stories and drew pictures. Then we went to play, and when we came inside, God had juice and cookies waiting for us!"

If you are in 4K-6th grade, you are invited to join us June 10-13, from 8:30-11:30 am. Register to participate or volunteer using this QR code.

TEACH: PILGRIM EXPANDS ITS MINISTRY FOOTPRINT

On March 10, Pilgrim church members, students, and families held a ceremonial groundbreaking to signal the beginning of construction.

Pilgrim students witnessed the first day of construction work.

We ask God's continued blessings on this important work as our church and school work together to grow our space to "Save the lost and strengthen the saved".

REACH! AZUA MISSION TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

“We went, we were stretched, we worked, we played, we worshiped, we shared the love of Jesus in so many ways (often without words). We held a medical mission + eye clinic and helped 400 people.

We shared messages and activities with a disabled group, at a special needs school, an orphanage, with young moms, at feeding programs, at churches and at a Compassion International site. We served refreshments and a message to migrant workers and poured a cement floor in a church. We visited a high school and challenged their students to live for Christ. We ministered in the prisons and churches and showed the Jesus video in different villages on five evenings.

Because of many generous donations we were able to support 12 construction projects, purchase sound equipment and instruments for three churches, 500 Bibles, 720 children's Bibles, 120 chairs, eight used wheelchairs and three walkers. We packaged rice, beans and oil to support 325 families for one week. We gave out 400 Thrivent shirts, health kits and used clothing and shoes. Money was also given to two feeding programs which help to feed children with physical and spiritual food throughout the year.

We were so privileged to humbly serve as the hands and feet of Jesus. We were touched by the joy and love of those we served, as well as those we served alongside with—pastors, drivers, interpreters, cooks. All praise to God! Thank you Pilgrim members for your generous donations which helped us to accomplish His work! Every donation was put to good use and was so appreciated by its recipients! Dios te bendiga! God bless you!”
