Wednesday Night Bible Study “Revelation—Finding the Old Testament in Revelation.” What book of the Bible promises blessings for reading it? Revelation is a good guess—verse 1:3: Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of the prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near. If you want an in-depth look at the book of Revelation and in particular how the Old Testament is used (and it is used a lot) in the book, please join us on Wednesday evenings from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm in the Conference Room (room 144). You will be blessed!

STEWARDSHIP

10th Sunday after Pentecost

Matthew 25:14-30

We know how it is in this world: The rich get rich and the poor get poorer! Even Jesus said, “He who has will be given more.” In the parable of the talents, He seems to encourage a little risk taking. The conservative man who simply hid his one talent was definitely the loser in this story. God didn’t give us all these blessings so we could hide them and keep them to ourselves. He wants us to put our money, possessions, time and skills to work building up His kingdom on earth, as well as providing the necessities for our self and our families. He wants us to invest in the future-the eternal future! When we do these things, He will open up the heavens and pour down blessings on us beyond anything we can imagine. When He returns on the Last Day, let’s not be caught with our blessings hidden away!
